Parents. Bon't Neglect Your Children!—Thousands of children annually become deaf in consequence of discharges of matter from their ears, induced by scarlet fever, colds, Nc. &c. Now, if mothers would do their duty, and procure Scarra's On. For Deafness, and use it as directed, their children would be cured; but, if neglected the discharge continues very troublesome, the hearing gradually gets worse, and finally partial or total deafness ensues. This invaluable medicine is sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Druggists, No. 79 Fulton st. 77 East Broadway, 273 Broadway.

The Invisible Wig so closely resembles the real head of hair that acceptics and connoisseurs have pronounced it the most perfect and extraordinary invention of the day. The great advantage of this novel and unique Wig is its being made without sewing or weaving, which causes its appearance so closely to resemble the natural hair, both in lightness and natural appearance, as to dery detection, its texture being so beautiful, so porous and so free, that in all cases of perspiration evaporation is unimpeded, and the great evils of peng so beautiful, so porous and so free, that in all cases of perspiration evaporation is unimpeded, and the great evils of other Wigs entirely avoided. BOOK OF DOMESTIC MEDICINE ever published. It is far superior to Buchan's antiquated treatise, and all similar works.

How much better would it be for invalids if, instead of dosing themselves with the quack nostrums, pills and panaceas which so abound, they would turn to the pages of this valuable manual, and under the appropriate head find and adopt the prescription suitable to their complaint—a prescription recommended by one of the most popular scientific Physicians of any age. Physicians of any age.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. "Decidedly the best of the numerous manuals of domestic medicine before the public." [London Examiner. "The name of the compiler of this useful work is a passport to every man's confidence. No family should be without this excellent work by the great Abernethy "[Court Journal. "The prescriptions are numerous, and drawn up with great care. Every variety of disease is treated of, and the best remedies for all are given in a manner intelligible both to the inprofessional reader and the apothecary."

[Metropolitan Magazine "The best and most trustworthy treatise of the kind. Every person who is traveling should put one of these books in his trunk. The chapter on the treatment of accidents is alone worth the whole price of the book." [London Times, We repudiate self-doctoring—but here is a book, London Atlas, "which every provident father of a family should have; for there are occasions when the advice it gives, in cases of illness and accident,

From the Boston Courier.—"They are exceedingly agreeable books, and such as young and old may peruse with pleasure and profit. The sketches of Scott, Byron, Bonaparte, Burns, Johnson, Goethe, Shakspeare, Ac. are lively and amusing in style, just in criticism, and interesting in narration: and we leel surprised, that on such hackneyed topics, the author, in so brief a space, has been able to say so much that is racy, sew, and striking."

From the Traceller—"The whole series will cost but a trifle, yet they may, and doubtless will be, the deciding means of insuring success in life to many a youth who shall enjoy the means of reading them."

From the Boston Atlas.— Parleys Cabinet library is worthy af all encouragement. It is cheap not only in promise, but in fact—150 pages for 25 cents; and it is calculated to exercise a wholesome influence. Like every thing from the same author, it strongly inculcates virtue and religion, and at the same time it arrays truth in a guise so comely and attractive, that it is likely to win many vetaries of fiction to companionship with her. There is great need of such works at this time.

From the Universalist Miscellany.—"There is no man tens of thousands, with the highest satisfaction and advantage. Peter Parley is the greatest, and wisest and best man on earth, in the minds of multitudes of children. They think no man has seen so much, traveled so much, or loves children so much as he does. This popular Peter Parley is the author of the Cabinet Library."

From the Sabbath School Messenger.—"This excellent work has reached its sixth number, and seems to increase in

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. 125 Fulton-street. TMPORTANT CAUTION -The Public should bear in mind that it is Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY that performs those remarkable cures which are published in every part of the country, and not the temporary notice. Those MAY be good, but we know nothing about them.

17 Let every Man, Woman and Child read the following, and if that does not satisfy all of the great virtues of this medicine, let them go to 125 Fulton-street and see the original, with numerous other testimonials of like character:

Waterville, (Oneida Co. N. Y.) Sept. 15, 1843.

Dear Sir—I owe it to the afflicted to inform you that in January last I was attacked by a very violent cold, caused by working in the water, which settled on my lungs. It was accompanied by a very severe pain in my breast and sides, and also a distressing cough. I had in attendance all the best medical aid in our village; but after exhausting their skill to no avail, they pronounced my disease a confirmed consumption, and they one and all gave me up to die. After much persuasion, I got the consent of my physician to use the Balsam of Wild Cherry, prepared by Dr. Wistar. I purchased of the Agent in our place one bottle, before using half of which I began to gain strength, and it was very evident my cough was much better and my symptoms in every way improving. I have now used three bottles, and am restored to perfect health. This result is alone owing to the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry; and I take this method of giving you the information, partly to pay the debt of gratitude I owe you, and partly that others similarly afflicted may know where to apply for relief.

Very truly yours, JAMES SAGE.

Mr. PALMER, Druggist, under date of Waterville, Sept. 24, 1843, writes:

The statement given you by Mr. Jonas Sage is well known

Mr. PALMER, Dringist, under date of Water thie, deeper 24, 1843, writes:

The statement given you by Mr. Jonas Sage is well known to be true by this whole community. It certainly was a most romarkable cure. The sale of the Balsam is very good, and success in cures truly flattering.

Yours respectfully,

D. D. PALMER.

Let the afflicted call and see our certificates. They prove conclusively that they can be cured if they get the right medicine. Be sure and get 'Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.' Beware of imitations.

This Balsam cures all affections of the lungs and liver, such as bleeding of the lungs, bronchitis, asthma of 10 or 20 years' standing, croup, obstinate pain in the chest, side, &c.

FRANCIS'S HIGHLY IMPROVED MANI-FRANCIS'S HIGHLY IMPROVED MANIFOLD WRITER.—This article has now been before the public but a short time, and has gained a reputation beyond parallel with any thing ever known, and the many thousand copies daily in use is a proof of the high favor they have obtained. It has entirely taken the precedence of the Copying Press; and many of our merchants, after paying from $25 te $50 for a Press have laid them aside and given the Manifold Writer the preference, anding them to be neater and more expeditions. The Copying Books are done up in a variety of sizes, the paper being ruled or plain, varying in price from $1 to $5. Business men and merchants who study economy, will please call and examine the article, and we will guarantee that it will recommend itself more than a column of advertising.
